Halliburton Shooting Suspect Arrested

Kilgore, TX -- On Monday, 10-28-2013 at about 10:24 pm Kilgore Police responded to Halliburton Energy Services, 2906 FM 349 Kilgore, Texas due to a report of gunshots. Upon arrival officers were told by a security guard a person had pulled up to the entry gate, threatened the guard with a rifle and entered the yard area. The suspect then drove to the back of the complex and fired several shots into a building and left. Police cleared the yard and discovered several windows contained bullet holes.

After investigation by the Kilgore Police Department Criminal Investigation Unit, Chase Ray Alford, 30 years of age, of Frankston, Texas was identified as the person who committed the crime. Chase Alford is a former employee of Halliburton. An arrest warrant was obtained and Mr. Alford was arrested by the Henderson County Sheriff's Office on Tuesday, 10-29-2013 at 8:45pm in Coffee City, Texas. Chase Alford is charged with Aggravated Assault on a Security Officer a Felony One Offense and Deadly Conduct Discharging a Firearm a Felony Three Offense. He is currently confined in the Henderson County Jail.
