KPD Officers Respond to Multiple Gun Shots

Kilgore, TX -- On Monday, 03-04-2013 at approximately 8:17 p.m. Kilgore Police Officers responded to the area of Houston and South Street in regards to multiple gun shots. Numerous 911 calls were received reporting the sounds of gunshots. Police located several witnesses who stated a fight had occurred earlier on the Kilgore College Campus involving two students and the same two students had again fought in an alley way off of Houston Street. During the fight, two unidentified individuals displayed handguns and randomly began firing them. The gunfire dispersed the crowd which had gathered for the fight.

Officers received an initial description from witnesses of the parties involved in the shooting. The two parties seen shooting handguns were described only as two black males possibly Kilgore College students. They left in a group of vehicles with the following provided descriptions: A tan 1990s style Chevrolet Caprice; a dark green Chevrolet Suburban or Tahoe with large wheels; and an older Chevrolet Monte Carlo.

Police recovered over 30 shell casings from several different caliber handguns. No injured victims were found and no property damage was located at the time of this release.

The Kilgore Police Department is aggressively working with Kilgore College Police in order to identify all involved parties. The Department is actively seeking information in regards to this crime and will bring appropriate criminal charges against those identified as participating in this crime.
