Burglary Suspects Identified & Property Recovered

Kilgore, TX -- After a recent rash of car burglaries earlier this month in the southern part of Kilgore, three Kilgore juveniles have been identified as the actors. The information was discovered after two of the juveniles were detained in Longview, Texas by a Longview Police Officer. The juveniles were found in possession of a backpack full of numerous GPS devices and other electronics. The Longview Police Officer was able to identify the property as stolen and belonging to Kilgore residents. This information led Kilgore Police Detective's to the identity of a third involved juvenile. The case is still under investigation by Kilgore Police Detective Kay Lynn Newbill. Detective Newbill is also in the process of returning the stolen items to the owners. Criminal charges are forthcoming.

If you have any further information about this crime please contact Detective Newbill at 903-983-1559. You can also use tip411 to send information anonymously. One may simply text to 847411 and place "Kilgore" in the subject line followed by your information. The information is anonymous and confidential.
